Start a dialogue about design. The evolution of the architecture industry is more dynamic and exciting than ever. We continue to deepen our understanding of the power of design applied to health, equity, sustainability, and of course to create beauty in our built environment. Your voice is essential to exhibiting the design leadership in our region, and we encourage you to share your work by submitting to AIA Seattle’s Honor Awards for Washington Architecture. It’s a new year with a new jury! If you have never submitted before or have not yet been recognized, this is your moment to start a new dialogue about design.

AWARDS + JURY PROCESS

The AIA Seattle Honor Awards program recognizes four levels of achievement:

HONOR AWARD

Represents the highest level of achievement

MERIT AWARD

Represents exceptional achievement

HONORABLE MENTION

Represents distinguished achievement

ENERGY IN DESIGN AWARD

Represents a balance of design achievement and exemplary energy performance

START A DIALOGUE ABOUT DESIGN

Every year, jurors praise submissions that reveal the story behind the marketing images. What concepts and considerations drove the design? What were the challenges and opportunities along the way? How did the design team arrive at the solution? We encourage submitters to use the project narrative, captions, and inclusion of process work as opportunities to tell a design story.

Submit to start a dialogue.

In addition to the jury's own criteria, the AIA Seattle community has identified four considerations for the submission review process:

Inspiration, Problem-solving, Environmental Sensitivity, and Social Impact.

Refer to past galleries for examples of award-winning submissions. Awards are the final determination of the jury.

Visit aiaseattle.org/honorawards2019 for more information.
